Hayes-Butler Memorial.

To-night at Helmbrecht's hall, South Side, memorial services will be held by Stephens Post No. 53, G. A. R., in honor of General Rutherford B. Hayes and General Benjamin F. Butler. General Hayes was one of the most prominent members of the Society of the Army of West Virginia.

Amalgamated Official Here.

M. M. Garland, president of the Amalgamated Association, visited the Zeina mill over the river yesterday with reference to the manufacture of nail plate. Mr. B. M. Caldwell, the manager, being sick, nothing could be done and Mr. Garland will likely return next Monday.

An Interesting Decision.

A decision was received yesterday by the clerk of the circuit court from the supreme court of appeals at Charleston, reversing the decision in the case of Kate Handlan. The decision is interesting, as it is to the effect that transfer of real estate by a man to his wife is not necessarily valid after the couple is divorced.

A Keeley Institute Here.

Wheeling is to have a Keeley institute, it having been so decided by the management of the West Virginia Keeley Institute Company. The Hearne mansion on the South Side has been secured for headquarters of the new institute, and Dr. M. B. Boone, who is the medical director of the company, will be here next week to complete arrangements for the opening.

The Pike Controversy.

The Belmont county pike inquiry was concluded at St. Clairsville yesterday morning, having lasted long into Tuesday night, and the commissioners agreed with the complainants not to render their decision until they had again viewed part of the roads. The complainants think they have made a strong case, and the defendants think they have made a doubly strong one. There is not likely to be much more of special interest until the commissioners render a decision.

Transfers Recorded.

January 19, by T. S. Riley, trustee, and A. J. McGarrell and wife to Henry Kalbitzer, for $10,750, the McGarrell property on the upper market square.

January 31, by Experience S. Plummer and William, her husband, to F. W. Plummer, for $1,400, part of lot 101, on the south side of Virginia street, Island.

January 31, by John A. Mooney to Precilla Mooney, for $800, lot 1 in Kline & Stifel's addition.

January 30, by Richard Mooney to John A. Mooney, for $800, for the same lot.

A Sad Occurrence.

Five weeks ago Miss Margaret Brod- ick, of Elkhardt, Ind., came to visit Miss Mae Belle Hart. Two weeks ago she developed typhoid fever. Yesterday she passed away as one who falls asleep. Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brodick, were by her side. The stricken parents have the sympathy of all who have come in contact with the winning young girl, who has been called home in the springtime of her promising life. Miss Brodick was an only daughter, highly educated, to her other accomplishments adding remarkable skill with the violin. Short services were held last evening by Rev. D. A. Cunningham, of the First Presbyterian church. At 10:35 the parents, accompanied by Mrs. Hart, started on their sad journey with all that was earthly of their loved one.

Billy George with the Reds.

Billy George, the well known ball player, who lives at Bellaire, will likely play with Comiskey and the Cincinnati club. Ren Mulford, the ball scribe, says of George in the Times-Star:

"This Ohioan—he hails from Bellaire—was once a pitcher on the staff of the Giants when they were giants sure enough. He had the speed of a whirlwind but he was just as wild. One year he led the pitchers in the matter of a small percentage of safe hits at his expense, but this record was offset by his generosity in the bestowal of bases on balls. Out in the Pacific Northwest last year he filled a fielding position with credit and it is possible that he may be a 'regular' instead of either McCann or Hoover."

The Modern Invalid has tastes medicinally, in keeping with other luxuries. A remedy must be pleasantly acceptable in form, purely wholesome in composition, truly beneficial in effect and entirely free from every objectionable quality. If really ill he consults a physician; if constipated he uses the gentle family laxative Syrup of Figs.

APPLIED FOR POLICE.

The Street Car Company Applies to Martins' Ferry's Mayor for PROTECTION BY SPECIAL POLICE.

The Mayor Refuses, Saying He Has No Authority—The Differences Between Men and Employers Not Yet Settled—What Ground the Company Stands On.

At a late hour last night there appeared to be no chance of an immediate settlement of the differences existing between the Wheeling Railway Company and its striking employees. The decision handed in to the arbitration committee of the Trades and Labor Assembly did not meet with the approval of the committee or the striking employees. The committee then handed in a counter proposition to General Manager Jolly, and on which he has not yet acted.

Though the contents or substance of the decision made by Mr. Jolly have not been made public, the INTELLIGENCER learned last night that the propositions made in the decision were concessions to some of the demands of the strikers. Mr. Jolly when seen last night would not say what the purport of his decision was, but said that the propositions made therein were the grounds on which the company would stand in making a settlement with the men.

It is understood that if no settlement is arrived at very soon the company will endeavor to run their cars as before the strike.

AFTER SPECIAL POLICE.

Yesterday Messrs. Jolly and Loftus, of the electric railway, called on Mayor A. W. Harris, of Martins' Ferry, and asked for the appointment of ten or twelve special police to protect their cars. Mayor Harris told these gentlemen that he had no power to appoint extra police for this purpose unless a riot should occur or there was danger of something of this kind. The trouble that occurred on the Ohio side was in Attnaville, out of Mayor Harris' jurisdiction.

A CELEBRATED CASE.

Probability that it will be Speedily Settled at Last.

Col. C. L. Poorman, as chairman of conference committee negotiating with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company for a crossing through the yards for Belmont street, in Bellaire, has reported to Council there that the committee had agreed upon terms to submit, which included a new bridge on Union street, a grade crossing on Belmont, the city to provide sewerage for the tracks south of same and to take charge of the Union street bridge; that this proposition had been sent in and was practically agreed to by the railroad company when the case in the supreme court came up in its regular order and was decided, involving the costs in the litigation of the case; that now the railroad company would not take up the matter again unless all questions pertaining to that crossing shall be included in the adjustment. The Council authorized the committee to proceed with the adjustment of all questions, and there is a prospect that the matter, which has been pending twenty-three weeks, will shortly be settled. The railroad company will have less use for its yards in Bellaire when the principal business is transferred to the new yards below Benwood, which will occur this spring.

THE GETTING IT DOWN is bad enough, with the ordinary pill. But the having it down is worse. And, after the disturbance, there's only a little temporary good.
